

Year 13 mock exam revision schedule – Philosophy and Ethics

Year 13 mock exam revision schedule

A level philosophy and Ethics

- Outlined below is a step by step revision schedule for the above A level course.
- This outlines what you must study for your mock exam.

Please tick off the topics as you progress through them, and ensure that they are signed off.

Date	Focus	Revision content	revised	Any problems?
Week 13 th December	Philosophy	The cosmological argument.
Week 3 rd January	Ethics	Animal welfare – focus on anthropocentric and ecocentric views.
Week 10 th January	Philosophy	Eschatology with a focus on the soul and life after death.
Week 17 th January	Ethics	Medical ethics – focus on pre-implantation genetic diagnosis.
Week 24 th January	Philosophy	Read the anthology 'The Philosophy of Religion' Chapter 1, 'Theology and Falsification: A symposium'. Mitchell, B.
Week 31 st January	Ethics	Read the anthology 'Groundwork for the Metaphysics of Morals'. Kant.
Week 7 th February	Philosophy	Religious language with a focus on the verification debate.
Week 14 th February	Ethics	Kants' deontology with a focus on his approach to ethics and morality. Kant and W.D Ross.
Week 21 st February	Philosophy	The problem of evil and suffering. Focus on challenges to the existence of God.
Week 28 th February	Ethics	Morality and religion. Focus on whether or not they can coexist.		