

Geography GCSE Learning Journey

Topic	Case study example
The changing economic world
The development gap How can we measure development? GNI & HDI How can we measure quality of life? Evaluate economic and social measure of development
Demographic Transition Model and population structures
Causes of uneven development – physical causes, economic causes and historical causes
Consequences of uneven development – wealth, health and migration
Reducing the development gap - tourism	Jamaica
Reducing the development gap – aid, debt relief, microfinance loans and fair trade
Case study of LIC that is experiencing rapid economic development which leads to social, economic and cultural change <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Location and importance in the world</li> <li>• Changing economic base/ industrial structure</li> <li>• Role of TNCs</li> <li>• Trade and aid</li> <li>• Environmental impacts</li> <li>• Quality of life impacts</li> </ul>	Nigeria
Economic futures in the UK <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• De-industrialisation, decline of traditional industries and government policy</li> <li>• Post-industrial economy – rise of service industry, IT, research, science &amp; business parks</li> <li>• Impact of industry on the physical environment and how it can be more sustainable</li> <li>• Rural areas of population growth and decline</li> <li>• New road, rail and airport developments</li> <li>• North-south divide</li> <li>• UK links with the wider world</li> </ul>	Torr Quarry, Somerset  South Cambridge v Outer Hebrides