Catch up work – LC4 - year 7 – The nature of Allah.

Muslims do not draw pictures to represent Allah. They believe Allah is beyond our comprehension and therefore cannot be represented.

1) Read the surah below:

“He is Allah, The one and only; Allah the eternal, absolute, he begot none, nor was he begotten, and there is none like him.”

Begot: To create/give birth

What do you think this Surah teaches Muslims about God?

2) What does Twahid mean?

3) To help Muslims understand Allah better, He has 99 names this makes it easier for people to understand His nature.

*Some of the 99 names of Allah

- ☐ The Peace      ☐ The Generous      ☐ The Truth
- ☐ The Judge      ☐ The Eternal      ☐ The Bringer of Death
- ☐ The Forgiver      ☐ The Patient      ☐ The One
- ☐ The Loving      ☐ The Creator      ☐ The Light
- ☐ The Almighty      ☐ The All-Wise

Choose 3 names and suggest a situation when you think a Muslim might particularly want to think about this quality of Allah
For example, they might think about 'Allah the Forgiver' when they have done something wrong.
