

KING JAMES'S SCHOOL
KNARESBOROUGH

Candidate Information

Note from the Headteacher

Thank you for your interest in working at King James's School.

I would say at the outset that this is a very rewarding school in which to work.

At King James's School, our core values—Ready, Respectful, and Engaged—are at the heart of everything we do, shaping the attitudes and behaviours of our students and staff alike. Guided by our vision "To set no limits on what we can achieve," we foster a culture of high aspiration and continuous growth. As a school grounded in unconditional positive regard, we believe that strong, respectful relationships form the foundation of effective learning and personal development. Our relationship-based approach ensures every student feels valued, supported, and empowered to thrive, while our staff are committed to nurturing an inclusive and inspiring environment where everyone can succeed.

We have plenty of skills and qualities that we consider important, but we also have a lot to offer to prospective candidates. First and foremost, the students here are great to work with. It is a comprehensive school and our students reflect the full range that you would find in any area, but the vast majority are well-motivated students willing to learn and to contribute to their school community. The local community is very supportive of the school; the catchment area is well defined and we have excellent relationships with the local parents who choose to send their children here. We fill up each year with pressure for places from beyond our catchment area. Knaresborough and North Yorkshire is not just a great place to teach, it is a great place to live.

The extra-curricular life of the school is rich. Most staff who work here involve themselves in it; there really is a vibrancy here that is difficult to match. We have a committed staff (teaching and non-teaching) who go the extra mile. Almost without exception, teachers go above and beyond the core delivery of lessons to enhance the enrichment opportunities for the students.

The ethos here is one of the strengths. Even though we have a charter going back to 1616 we are a very forward-facing school with an open and friendly ethos. We are highly inclusive and we have a strong reputation for delivering outstanding care and outcomes for students with SEND, alongside an enviable output to top university courses from our high-performing A level students. Our A level results place us in the top 20% of providers nationally consistently, year on year.

We are demanding of our staff, teaching and associate staff. We believe that our community deserves an outstanding school and we strive to be outward facing, never resting on our laurels and always seeking further improvement. We expect students and staff to embrace challenge and to see resilience and hard work as the route to success. At the same time, we have a very strong commitment to the development and training of all staff, teaching and non-teaching. This is a school in which the opportunities for your personal development are rich.

We believe in collaborative working with other schools. We are proud of the relationships that we have fostered, including taking the lead role within the White Rose Alliance for School Direct. We are also federated with another local school, Boroughbridge High, for whom we provide 6th form provision and some non-teaching support.

Thank you for considering King James's School and we look forward to receiving your application.

Information on the English Department

Dear prospective applicant,

I am delighted to be Head of Faculty for a highly successful and experienced English Department which over recent years has progressed from strength to strength. Sustained improvement within the department has been brought about by detailed and effective schemes of work at Key Stages 3 and 4, along with consistent development in the teaching and learning of English for all pupils of all abilities. There is still work to do in improving our outcomes at GCSE and A-Level and of course ensuring that we continue to deliver a robust curriculum that supports those students who have gaps in their learning; this is a challenge the department are excited by and we enjoy the opportunity to invest in high quality teaching & learning strategies.

The capacity to have such a sharp focus on effective teaching and learning is made possible by the tremendous students at King James's. It is a comprehensive school with an intake of pupils from all backgrounds and our classes are filled with well-motivated students willing to improve their English learning and contribute to their school community.

I am fortunate to lead a team of staff who have a wide range of backgrounds, expertise and experiences. We work as an innovative team - sharing ideas which we then embed into our practice. We are fortunate in the structure of our English responsibilities, having members of staff who hold TLRs for A level English Language, A Level Media and A level Literature as well as a Second in Department with responsibility for Key Stage 3. Effective teaching and learning is at the heart of everything we do in the English Faculty and we seek to enrich our curriculum with extra-curricular opportunities like a recent production of Macbeth for our year 11s and visits from local writers.

You will be supported in your teaching by detailed schemes of work and resources developed and shared across the department. We hope to appoint someone able to teach across all key stages; key stage 5 leaders are happy to provide additional guidance to those new to teaching A-level Literature, Language or Media.

We are open to applicants of all levels of experience. Should we appoint an ECT, the school offer an extensive induction programme and you would have a mentor within the department to guide you through your first year of teaching. As well as thorough schemes of work, shared resources and systems to support classroom management, you will have your own classroom, Smartboard and iPad. CPD is a vital part of our approach to teaching and learning at King James's School. We use department meeting and development time to ensure our teaching practice is honed and our curriculum is robust.

I look forward to your application.

Yours sincerely,

Mr Dominic J. Frey
Head of English Faculty
