- . 24th August – priority access to scripts (copies) to support a review of marking (not priority review)
- . 20th August 10am – A Level deadline for priority review of marking – advised applying 13th - 14th August. Inform your university that you have requested a priority review of marking
- . 22nd September - Review of marking & clerical re-check deadline
- . 23rd September - Dept deadline to request copies of scripts to support teaching and learning – permission from candidate is required before dept. request can go through
- . 21st September - Review of moderation (coursework) at the request of the dept only, no individual requests allowed.
- . Appeals request, 30 days following receipt of review of marking outcome.

Priority review of marking: This is a review of the original marking to ensure that the mark scheme has been applied correctly, reviewers will not re-mark the script, they will only act to identify genuine marking errors or unreasonable marking and will include a clerical re-check & to make sure marks are counted.

Review of marking: As above

Clerical re-check: That all parts of the script have been marked
The totalling of marks
The recording of marks

Please be aware that when requesting a review of marking or clerical re-check, grades can go up or down and if the grade goes down the original grade cannot be reinstated – NO GRADE PROTECTION

Payment: By card in the exam's office/reception – Applications will not be accepted without payment
