

Year 7 – Russia

Learning Journey

	Title
1	What is the geography of Russia like?
2	What is the climate of Russia like?
3	What are the biomes of Russia?
4	What is the population like in Russia?
5	What is the geography of Moscow, St. Petersburg, the Ural Mountains and Lake Baikal?
6	What are the disadvantages of living in Russia?
7	What are the advantages of living in Russia?
8	What were the impacts of the Chernobyl nuclear disaster?

Keywords

Life expectancy	the average number of years a person is expected to live (years)
	global ecosystems with dominant climate and vegetation E.g. hot deserts permanently frozen ground areas very far north or south of the equator with cold, long dark winters. An area with very few plants.
	very cold and dry climate. An area made up of coniferous forest (trees with pine needles) a climate with few extremes E.g. UK climate. Characterised by deciduous trees (lose leaves in the winter) grassland with few trees but a much milder climate and more fertile soils pattern of where people live average number of people living in an area
	very few people living in an area crowded place so lots of people in one area

Permafrost, Taiga, Temperate, Steppe, Population Distribution, Population density, Sparsely populated, Tundra, Densely populated, Biomes.