

Year 9 – Development & Urbanisation

Learning Journey

	Title
1	What is Africa?
2	The Physical Geography of Africa
3	The Climate and Biomes of Africa
4	Why is the Sahara growing?
5	Where are all the people?
6	What is development and how can it be measured?
8	Is there a development 'gap'?
9	Video Lesson: 'Africa United'
10	Why is there a development gap?
11	How can we reduce the development gap?
12	What is Fairtrade?
13	How can TNCs help to reduce the development gap?
14	Why has the DRC struggled to develop?
15	What does the future look like for the DRC?
16	Why are Africa's cities growing so rapidly?
17	A case study of rapid urban growth – Lagos
18	What are sustainable cities?

Keywords

Gross National Income (GNI)	A measure of how wealthy the average person is in a country
	When you are so poor, you don't have the basic resources that allow you to live healthily
	When you are poor compared to most people in your country
	The number of babies born each year (per 1000 people)
	The number of deaths each year (per 1000 people)
	The percentage of adults that can read and write
	The numbers of babies that die before their 1 st birthday (out of every 1000 births)
	A large-scale ecosystem defined by its climate, soils, plants and animals
	The process by which land becomes less fertile and more desert like.
	A company which operates in more than one country (the head office is normally in a high-income country)

Birth rate; biome; relative poverty; desertification; literacy rate; Trans-national corporation (TNC); death rate; absolute poverty; infant mortality rate